

BARONS DE ROTHSCHILD

CHAMPAGNE

Passion, skill, and dedication has led to Barons de Rothschild excelling in the wine industry for over 170 years, resulting in truly extraordinary products that have landed them the title of one of the most prestigious brands in the world. In the 19th century, the Rothschilds began their wine domination through the curation of two of the most well-respected Premier Cru Classe labels in a famous region of France, Bordeaux. The Rothschilds have cemented themselves as the pinnacle of luxury and quality in the wine industry for centuries, however the golden allure of Champagne was calling.

The Barons de Rothschild Champagne House was created in 2005, when three Rothschild cousins, Baron Benjamin, Baron Eric, and Baroness Philippine, set out to craft the best sparkling using the finest grapes in the region. They combined only the best terroirs with their sense of business excellence, to create sensational showpieces in the Champagne world. They set their sights on a supremely sought-after and rare grape, Chardonnay, which is a variety that accounts for less than 30% of the total vineyards in the Champagne region of France. Customers can be assured that they will be buying only the finest product as the prestige of this family name guarantees top-quality craftsmanship through years of honorable tradition. Innovation is also a forefront of every venture, and if uniqueness and sophistication in the form of Champagne is what your heart desires, then you have found what you are looking for.

After spending time meticulously perfecting their recipe for this liquid gold, Barons de Rothschild first sold their Champagne only 13 years ago. Japan and Germany were the first to sample the delights that the brand had to offer, but this soon began to expand across Europe as they excelled in every market they ventured into. This Champagne is certainly not one to miss, as only half a million bottles are produced every year which are exported to 70 countries. This is a unique success in such a prestigious and historic industry, epitomising the talent of the Barons de Rothschild brand as well as the undeniable quality of their Champagne.
